May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. ²²I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one—²³I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. TEACHING SUMMARY:

There is an older song that says that “What the world needs now, is love, sweet love,” and while that is true I believe there is something that most would say they either learned or had reinforced in their lives. What we all need now is community.

We need community for relationships. We need community to make it through the trials of the day. We need community to celebrate well, mourn in a healing way, find hope and experience the life that Jesus designed for us.

When we gather as the Church, in the church building, our homes, together online, or wherever we can gather we find the strength to endure life and are able to support one another.

Jesus designed us to be together. He created us to be for one another and that best happens in community with other Christ followers.

TALK IT OVER:

Are you naturally more introverted or extroverted? How important do you feel community is? Explain

What are some ways that the church community has influenced or impacted your life?

What are some simple ways that the group you are a part of could become more impactful in the lives of those around you? How could your community(group of Christ followers) show those around that you are for them?

What is one next step you can take based on today's teaching?

How can we be praying for you?
