TEACHING SUMMARY:

One of the failures we succumb to is that we prioritize doing for God ahead of being with God. When our priorities are disordered, our emotional health and our relationships suffer the consequences.

Jesus would tell Martha that there is only one thing needed: being with Him. Jesus would teach His disciples to "abide" or "remain" with Him because apart from Him they can do nothing.

So how do we practice "being" with God over doing? We can make a radical decision to "be" by eliminating something we do. We can begin to feel our feelings and take them to God in prayer. We can practice silence to hear God speak and to fully surrender to Him. We can abide in Christ in all circumstances and at all times.

That is the way to the wholeness that God wants us to have. The transformed life comes only when we prioritize being with Christ over doing for Him.
