

Many people don't know who God is like, what God is like or who God likes.

SERIES BIG IDEA:

The Church doesn't have a mission. God's mission has a church.

The Church is the kingdom family of God who carries out Jesus' mission to seek and to save the lost.

The gospel is that God does not count the sins against those who receive Jesus as Savior and follow Him as Lord.

TEACHING BIG IDEA:

To receive salvation is to be called into Jesus' mission.

I cannot separate receiving salvation from the call to go and make disciples.

John 4:7-10

Jesus claims that He is God who gives the gift of life.

John 4:11-17

Jesus gives me life when I confess my sins, trusting that God doesn't count my sins against me.

Jesus is full of grace and truth. It is in His grace that He confronts me with truth.

John 4:17-24

Worship is having the Spirit of God living in me and living out God's truth.

John 4:25-38

I must open my eyes to see the harvest that Christ sacrificially worked for.

John 4:39-42

Others will become believers when I am a witness to what God has done in Christ for me.

The Commissioned Life: Be. Live. Tell.

- I must be the gospel. I will let the truth of the gospel transform me every day.
- I must live the gospel. I will treat others the way God through Christ has treated me.
- I must tell the gospel. I will be a witness and speak about the good news that Jesus doesn't count the sins against those who trust in Him.

When I live my life in Jesus' truth, my words and my actions are a witness to the gospel.

It will be our witness that tells the world who God is like, what God is like, and who God likes.

TEACHING SUMMARY:

There are people all around us who are questioning "who God is, what God is like, and who God likes?"

When we receive salvation by trusting in Jesus' perfect life, sacrificial death, and life-giving resurrection, we receive a calling to join Him on His mission reverse the curse of sin.

In this teaching, we saw how the Samaritan woman confronted her sin as she encountered Jesus and experienced His grace. She came to the well in shame and when she left, she had no shame to tell everyone the truth that Jesus didn't count her sins against her.

Salvation is not just a gift to be received but also a commission to go.

We live out our commission in three words: Be. Live. Tell. When we "be the gospel, live the gospel, and tell the gospel," the world will know who God is like, what God is like, and who God likes.

TALK-IT-OVER:

Have you met someone and you didn't realize until later that they were famous? Who was it?

How do you think the Samaritan woman felt when she came to Jacob's well at a time where she wouldn't be seen? What made the Samaritan woman so confident to confess publically what she privately hid?

Of these three: Be, live, tell; which do you struggle with the most? Why?

How can you apply the "I will" statement to the one you struggle with most?
