TEACHING SUMMARY:

It is important to reflect. In order to do that, we must silence the noise, stop our activity, and reflect on our experiences and the truth in scripture we've learned.

It is God's truth that you have learned that will guide you in the days to come. God has led you into His truth to give you wisdom for what you will face next year.

We can make our plans for the next year. We can set our goals and add events to our calendar, but it is the Lord's purpose that will win out over our plans or anyone else's plan.

The future is uncertain. However, we can hold onto the unshakeable truth of Jesus and build our lives on His foundation that rock solid.

Trust in God's truth—even in your uncertain situations—by putting it into practice. When you do this, you can be certain that the God of peace will be with you no matter what you face.
